What Is It
Badia OpenNow XT is a free XTension that lets you double-click on any picture to access file information, with options for updating, revealing and opening the image with its creator application. Double-click on any picture box with the Contents tool to display a dialog with the following information:

– Name/Path. Select any entry from this pop-up menu to reveal the image or folder in the Finder.
– Default App: This is default application selected in the Open With window of the picture file info (Finder –>Get Info).
– Last Modified: The most recent date modified as reported by the Finder.
– Status: The status of the picture (OK, Modified, etc.).
– More Info: Additional picture information (same as More Info in Picture Usage window).
– Reveal in Finder: Click to reveal the image in the Finder. Not available for Missing/No Disk File images.
– Update Now: Available only for Modified or Wrong Type images. Click to bring the link up to date.
– Picture Usage/Badia BigPicture: Click to open the picture usage dialog (or the Badia BigPicture dialog if XTension is present).
– Open with Default App: Click to open the picture with the default application (same effect as double-clicking picture in Finder).
